CE Information

Earn ACHE, NASBA CPE, and RBMA continuing education credits at the 2024 ACR-RBMA Practice Leadership Forum.

Earn up to 13.25 ACHE, and RBMA credits

Earn up to 11.5 NASBA CPE credits

ACHE Qualified Education (non-ACHE) credit

Offered through the American College of Healthcare Executives toward advancement or recertification in the American College of Healthcare Executives. Attendees will self-report their hours by completing the RBMA downloadable CE form. Please sign and keep for your record for submittal to the American College of Healthcare Executives to earn credit.

NASBA CPE

RBMA is registered with the National Association of State Boards of Accountancy (NASBA) as a sponsor of continuing professional education on the National Registry of CPE Sponsors. State boards of accountancy have final authority on the acceptance of individual courses for CPE credit.

Attendees must record the session code shown at the end of a session presentation or the one given verbally by the presenter. Enter the session code on your NASBA and submit to RBMA (education@rbma.org) to receive your certificate.

Attendees seeking credits are also required to sign the attendance sheet within 15 minutes of the session start time.

RBMA Continuing Education

RBMA offers continuing education credit for those working toward RBMA fellowship. This is a self-reporting process. Attendees will self-report their hours by completing the RBMA downloadable CE form. Please sign and keep the completed form for your record.

*** Deadlines: All forms and code cards for earned credit during the 2024 ACR-RBMA Practice Leaders Forum must be received by RBMA staff (education@rbma.org) by February 29, 2024. RBMA will provide certificates within 10 business days.
